

Muslim Aid-UK spent Rs. 100m every year in Pakistan

3 family welfare centres, school constructed in Balochistan

Muslim Aid is working to lessen the sufferings of vulnerable communities in the world regardless of race, creed or nationality. These views were expressed by Secretary Board of Trustees (BoT) Muslim Aid-UK, Syed Mohammad Tanzeem Wasti during a press conference held here at Quetta Press Club.

He said that Muslim Aid is a UK based relief and development agency established in 1985 and working in over 70 countries with field offices in Bangladesh, Bosnia, Cambodia, Gambia, Indonesia, India, Iraq, Jordan, Kenya, Lebanon, Pakistan, Somalia, Sri Lanka and Sudan.

Muslim Aid is celebrating its 25 years of inception and we worked with all in need, regardless of their race, religion, gender, nationality or political opinion and specialise in providing: emergency relief including food, shelter and medical support; capacity building through water, sanitation and health programmes; education and skills training; micro-financing and income generation in addition to providing specialist programmes such as orphan care.

During his visit to Quetta, three family welfare centres were inaugurated and handed over to provincial government of Quetta. These centres were established at Kutch, Varchoom and Khawas. One high school were reconstructed by Muslim Aid in Secretary BoT Muslim Aid-UK inaugurates Family Welfare Centre in Kutch, Balochistan. Muslim Aid donates 3 centres and one high school to provincial government.

Secretary BoT addresses a Press Conference at Quetta Press Club.

Dilsora and handed over to the education department of Balochistan. While highlighting the natural disasters, he said that calamities Muslim Aid officials in a meeting with Balochistan Education Minister.

cause terrible effects on human beings and the previous years were turned out to be an awful years. "I am proud of the way that our Muslim Aid staff and local partners have risen to the challenges and delivered the best possible response in the devastated areas of the country", Wasti said.

He further briefed the media about his visits to the areas where Muslim Aid is engaged in relief and rehabilitation activities. He also highlighted the projects, which were initiated by Muslim Aid in 2009 and 2010 plan was also highlighted by him. We will continue our support to the brethren of Balochistan, he said.

Computer lab donated by Muslim Aid to BWS in Mardan.

3 child development centres established

Muslim Aid has established three Rainbow- Child development centers in Lahore and Islamabad.

In Lahore Shahdara, Green Town were selected to establish these centres and Tarnol, Islamabad is another area in the focus of Muslim Aid.

In these clusters Muslim Aid is arranging curricular and extra-curricular activities for the personality development of the children.

Assistant Officer Rainbow Family Programme, Seemab Akhtar said that establishment of three new educational centres are the steps to achieve Millinium Development Goals (MDGs). Muslim Aid would continue its support for enhancing the literacy rate in the community, she added.

3-day workshop for Muslim Aid staff arranged

A three-day training workshop on effective workplace communication was arranged for Muslim Aid team members. The purpose of the training was to enhance the skills and capacity of the staff for their peak performance.

Highly qualified trainers from Sustainable Development Policy Institute (SDPI) arranged various group activities on Believing in Team Work, Resolving Conflicts, Workplace Behaviour, Goal Setting and Communication & Culture.

One for the Album

Muslim Aid staff pose for a group photo.

Muslim Aid has designed and conducted various training workshops and sessions in collaboration with its partners for the capacity building of its staff. Three-day workshop on effective workplace communication was one of the trainings in curtailing communication barriers during team work.

Survey to identify NSGC

Muslim Aid conducted baseline survey of Not-School Going Children (NSGC) in Murree.. Eight principals of different schools pledged their full support for enrolment of such NSGC, who are out of school due to economic constraints. This support includes 16 full fee scholarships for one year. 30 parents/ guardians were mobilized to provide syllabus to their child. Muslim Aid announced provision of school kits to deserving children, said Junaid Jadoon.

For Donation please contact:

Islamabad:

Kashif Ali Akhtar
kashif@muslimaid.org.pk
0334-5166497

Lahore:

Syed M Kazim
kazim@muslimaid.org.pk
0334-5166499

Media & Communication Officer:

M H Khalid
media@muslimaid.org.pk
0334-5166496